*Programs are subject to change Barbara Shramek 619-286-1250

Join Lisa Gilfillan and Angela Kemsley, scientists and conservationists from international nonprofit WILD COAST, on a scenic virtual tour of San Diego County's wetlands. From the peaceful waters of Batiquitos Lagoon to the hustle and bustle of Famosa Slough, San Diego's wetlands are unique biodiversity hotspots that contribute greatly to the County's history, culture, health, and economy. Learn about the research and restoration being conducted at these wetlands and their potential as blue carbon-storing superpowers to act as a natural solution to climate change. You'll also get inside tips on the best recreational activities at each lagoon, including hiking, kayaking, and bird watching.

$43.00 - Bridgeview Left -Individual Seats in theatre type seating

Only 22 seats - Members Only until September 15

Cutoff Date - September 30

This will be another wonderful opportunity to experience the new Shell downtown.

Chicago The Musical is a sensational tale of sin, corruption and all that jazz with a ripped-from-the-headlines story about fame and scandal, and one show-stopping song after another. Rob Fisher and Tom Thompson created this full-length concert adaptation featuring a five-member cast of seasoned Broadway performers and a new orchestral arrangement for a full symphony orchestra, including every song from the original score and interstitial spoken dialogue. No outside food or beverages allowed but you can purchase on site. Make your check out to TPSC for $43.00 and mail to Debbie with a SASE to:
