47th ANNIVERSARY
1962-2009

President's Corner

The newest member of the Torrey Pines Ski Club Board of Directors is our Recording Secretary, Teri Browne. Last season Teri was on our reception committee and many members will remember her greetings when they arrived at club meetings. Teri grew up in North Hollywood, graduated from Providence High in Burbank, and went to Chico State for two years before marrying and moving to Wrightwood. While living in Wrightwood in the late 60's, Teri started her family and went back to college. She attended San Bernardino State, performed in many plays, and graduated with BA in English and Drama.

In 1972, Teri moved with her husband, Dave, and their three daughters to Bonners Ferry in Northern Idaho. They had 80 acres, a log house, a huge barn and sheds, and a large garden and flower beds. She cooked on a wood stove, helped bring in 8 cords of wood for the furnace each year, and made bread from wheat they grew. They ate their own farm-raised meat and canned their own food. They pressed cider from their apple orchard resulting in 30-50 gallons each year, made wine in gallon jugs from all sorts of fruits and berries, had chickens, dogs and cats, and a couple work horses. Teri also sewed, knitted, crocheted, embroidered, – you name it. It was a real rural lifestyle. As if that wasn't enough, Teri helped start Bonners Ferry Community Theatre, acted in most plays, starred in many, and directed three plays. She also did makeup, scene design, etc. In addition, she was a waitress at a couple of establishments and became the first woman realtor in Bonners Ferry. She painted in oil and watercolor for 3 years full time.

After fifteen years in Idaho, with their girls grown, Teri and Dave moved to San Diego. Teri found a job with CCN, a large PPO network, and worked her way up to the customer service supervisor. Later Teri changed jobs and became the only woman in technical support for the software company eHelp. Teri is now retired.

Dave was always the skier, but while living in Idaho, Teri learned to ski at Schweitzer in Sandpoint. She loves to hike and has taken hiking trips to Italy, France, Slovenia, and here in California.

FYI!

Airline Bag Fees Big and Getting Bigger!

United Airlines has increased its checked baggage fee to $20.00 for the first bag and $30.00 for the second bag—but, if you pay the bag fees online, you get a $5.00 discount—or back to their original price for checked bags.

The airlines began charging bag fees after the price of oil skyrocketed and they are still trying to recoup their losses. It is working very well so far – as the airline industry collected $1.1 billion on checked bag fees last year, with American Airlines alone bagging $278 million for bags in 2008.
