Hello Everyone. I'm delighted to serve as your president again after 17 years. It doesn't seem that long. membership and buy a ticket to the 50th Dinner before they are gone.

The Far West Convention held in Ogden, Utah was a big success and a lot of fun. The weather was beautiful and everyone enjoyed the town of Ogden. Brad Davis did an outstanding job of representing both Torrey Pines and the San Diego Council as Man of the Year. Unfortunately, the FWSA award went to another Council candidate but Brad remains our Man of the Year. Council President Eileen Sanford was awarded the Elizabeth "Schatzi" Wood award at the banquet. The convention next year will be in Reno on June 6-9, 2013.

On the Lift with Laura

At the June General Meeting, I was surprised to see Connie Clark, who was Torrey Pines' 39th president in 1998-99. Connie plans to become an active member after being absent for over ten years. She was born on a farm in Northwest Iowa near West Okoboji Lake. While in high school, Connie had a summer job as a maid in the resort cabins around the lake. After graduation from Melvin High, she moved to Omaha, Nebraska with a friend that she met at Okoboji Lake. In Omaha Connie worked as an administrative assistant with a small keypunching company. She met and married a Navy guy and moved to Chula Vista when he was assigned to the 32nd Street Naval Base. In San Diego, Connie worked at Mesa Verde Psychiatric Hospital as their Payroll Administrator and then became a stay-at-home mom.

Connie learned about Torrey Pines in the mid-1990's while on a camping trip with the Sierra Club. Torrey Pines was camped nearby and she thought they seemed to be having a lot of fun, decided to join Torrey Pines and soon became club recording secretary, vice-president and then president.

Connie didn't learn to ski until after becoming President. She first went to Mt. High for beginning lessons and then went on a club trip to Park City. Besides ski trips, Connie also took part in biking activities and, of course, social activities. One memorable event Connie organized was an Oktoberfest trip to Big Bear.

During her years away from the club Connie learned to sky dive, acquired a 1980 Porsche, and won a Gold Medal for Softball in the 2004 Senior Olympics.

Be sure to get acquainted or re-acquainted with Connie soon.
