OCTOBER 2011

49th ANNIVERSARY
1962-2011

President's Corner

Congratulations to Barbara Shramek and Brad Davis on their recent election by the TPSC Board of Directors as "Man and Woman of the Year" for our club. Both very much deserve this honor. The year 2012 will carry special significance since our club celebrates its 50th Anniversary. Barbara has been very active in TPSC since before we joined the club. She has been and currently still holds two very important positions, being responsible for membership as well as being the editor of our newsletter. Both positions are very demanding. In addition she has been and still is leading many events. Barbara has been a board member for many years and held various offices at our club including that of TPSC President in 1994/95.

Brad also has been very involved in our club and has held the office of club President in 77/78. He was very active thirty years ago when we all were younger and our club was larger. He was an avid skier and racer. In our selection process the contributions over the whole lifetime is taken in to consideration. In recent years, Brad became more involved again leading many events and walks and you will recognize his distinctive voice as our Santa Claus. Brad has the distinction of being elected the San Diego Council "Man of the Year" in 1978/1979. Barbara and Brad will represent TPSC at the Annual Winter Gala on November 5 at the Acapulco Restaurant. See more details below. Join us to cheer them on at the Gala – details inside.

Torrey Pines Has Selected Our 2011 Man and Woman Of The Year... Brad Davis & Barbara Shramek

Brad joined Torrey Pines Ski Club in 1974 and soon became Assistant Race Chairman followed by Race Director, Vice-President, President and Past-President when the Club had about 2,000 members. During this period he also served as a Ski Trip Captain for many weekend bus trips to Mammoth Mountain and he was always encouraging members to race in order to become skiers. Brad even ran clinics to teach the basics and techniques for racing. He still has a shelf full of race trophies he earned during that era. Representing Torrey Pines, he served on the Race Committee for the San Diego Council. Right after he was talked into becoming Assistant Race Chairman (he had never raced before) the Race Chairman left town leaving Brad to coordinate the first race of the season. He had never even seen a race course except on TV, but everything went smoothly. Thirty-three years ago, in 1978, Brad was named Snow King (the predecessor for Man of the Year) for Torrey Pines with Diane Mensch as Snow Queen. He earned the San Diego Council nomination and went to the FWSA Convention in San Francisco where he took second place.. Brad has most recently been known for narrating walks and other "Just For Fun" activities and tours and of course entertained us with an annual December appearance as Santa Claus.

Barbara is on the TPSC Board as a Director and has been President, Vice President, Assistant Treasurer, Membership, Reception, Recording Secretary, Newsletter Assistant and Newsletter Editor. She has run the Annual Picnic, Sunset Previews at the Cabrillo Monument, Senior Monday's at the Fleet Museum, Tower After Hours at the Museum of Man, trip to the Beckmann Research Center at the Wild Animal Park, the Wastewater Treatment Plant, tours of two Nuclear Submarines, Taylor Guitars Factory, Padre Game Night, Starlight Theatre, Silent Movie Night, Cabrillo Festival, Toys for Tots, Sadie Hawkins party and other events. Busy outside of TPSC, she is on the Board of the Portuguese American Social and Civic Club, Cabrillo Festival, Inc and Lakeside Garden Club. She organizes the Art Contest for all Fourth Grade students in San Diego County for the Cabrillo Festival and helps with the brochure and poster for the Festival. She does a small newsletter for Master Images Strategist. Barbara is a member of the Cabrillo Civic Club # 16 and The Village Garden Club of La Jolla. Susan Ely and Barbara have worn those costumes for several of the past TPSC General Meetings – turkey, Christmas tree, elf, leprechaun, Easter Fun Bunny, Uncle Sam, etc.

San Diego Council of Ski Clubs Sandiegoski.org

Summer is over and everyone is looking towards the fun activities of fall and winter. The San Diego Ski Council has already made plans to kick off the ski season with their annual Winter Gala and Torrey Pines Ski Club has selected their man of the year,

Brad Davis, and their woman of the year, Barbara Shramek, to represent TPSC at the Winter Gala.

You will notice the Council is trying something different this year. Instead of a semi-formal dinner dance at one of the big hotels, they will host the Winter Gala at Margaritaville! It will be held Saturday, November 5, 2011 at 6:00 PM at the Acapulco Restaurant in Old Town, 2467 Juan Street, San Diego 92110. The cost is only $20.00 if paid by October 26. After that date it will increase to $35.00. Reserve your spot now by sending your check made payable to SDCSC to Barbara Blasé, 5149 Biltmore Street, San Diego, CA 92117. She may be reached at bblase@san.rr.com if you have further questions.

Remember the Skier's Guide is now online. Please go the link on fwsa.org. The number of hits to the Skier's Guide is being recorded and given back to the advertisers.

FWSA is going to Australia and New Zealand this fall. They also have a ski trip planned to Chamonix, France on March 8-15, 2012 with a post-trip to Morocco from March 16-30. Check fwsa.org for more details.

FWSA will be going to Innsbruck, Austria for their 2013 ski week with a pre-trip to Garmisch, Germany. That sounds exciting, doesn't it?

FWSA convention will be held in Ogden, Utah on June 7-10 at the Ogden Eccles Conference Center. Delegates will be staying at the Marriott Ogden ($130) or the Hampton Inn and Suites Ogden ($106). Fun optional activities will include a Historic 25th Street Pub Crawl, Mountain Hiking, Powzilla 4-wheel Adventure, Local Museum and Historic Tour and the Michael German Golf Tournament. Let's start planning a group trip for those who wish to drive and make it a Wild West Road Trip.

Congratulations to Torrey Pines Ski Club, Action Ski Club and Top of The Hill Ski Club for receiving recognition awards for their charity work throughout the year. Thank you all. I feel so proud of our club.

Enjoying dinner after serious Bocce playing

On the Lift with Laura

We have a few members who have been active since the club's early days and continue to stay active today. Diane Mensch is one of these. She spent the first seven years of her life in Boston. Her family moved to Tucson where she graduated from Tucson High School. She learned to play the accordion and later the cornet so she could play in her school band. Diane went to University of Arizona, starting out in the Music Department playing in the Orchestra for a year. She switched majors and received an MA in English and a minor in Education. Diane taught English at Coronado High School for all but two of the next 32 years. She took the two year break and worked as a secretary at the Salk Institute. She now has been able to return to her first love, music. In 2000 Diane joined the San Diego Banjo Band and in 2003 formed the Paragon Band and remains active in both organizations.

Diane joined Torrey Pines in 1966 to learn to ski. Torrey Pines was pretty much just a ski club but soon started their biking program and other activities. She took part in as many of these as she could. Very adventurous, Diane has gone Heli-skiing in the Cariboos and did some Hang-Gliding until she crashed. In the late seventies, Diane served the club as a Social Chairman. In 1978 we thought enough of her to nominate her for TPSC Woman of the Year and also selected as San Diego Council of Ski Clubs Woman of the Year.

Diane's summers were spent traveling. During a summer bike trip in France Diane met a Frenchman, Emmanuel, who courted her for the rest of her stay in France. They stayed in contact after she returned to the U.S. and eventually got married. Diane and Emmanuel now live in Coronado. You can see Diane perform with her Paragon Band Tuesday nights in the McDonalds Restaurant at 53rd and El Cajon Blvd. Join the TPSC group on Tuesday, October 25 at 5:30 PM for a fun evening.

THE SD COUNCIL OF SKI CLUBS MAN AND WOMAN OF THE YEAR WILL BE ANNOUNCED AT THE WINTER GALA ON NOVEMBER 5. BE SURE TO GET YOUR TICKETS IF YOU HAVEN'T ALREADY DONE SO.
