President's Corner

For 14 years Janet Spiro has run our popular Ethnic Dining program but she has been an active club member for about 25 years.

Janet was born and raised in the Bronx. She attended Walton High School, an all-girls public high school, and City College of New York which is now part of the City University of New York.

Janet remembers being a devoted Frank Sinatra fan and calls herself one of the original bobby-soxers. While in college, Janet met her husband, Norman Spiro, an army officer, and moved to Fort Benning, Georgia. When Norman went to Korea, Janet went back to New York where she worked as human resources professional and continued her education. After being injured, Norman returned to Georgia and then Janet became a true Army wife. They lived in Monterrey, California; Tokyo, Japan; New Jersey; Boston; and Paris. Anyone who knows how much Janet loves to travel will understand how much she enjoyed all these varied assignments. The Viet Nam War broke out while they were stationed at West Point, New York. So Norman went to Asia and Janet finally had a chance to finish college and receive her BA. After Viet Nam, Janet and Norman lived in Taiwan and San Francisco and then finally retired to San Diego. Prior to retirement, Janet had 3 kids, was an active Girl Scout Leader, a hospital Gray Lady, and she compiled cookbooks as fundraisers for her army wives groups

Janet and Norman separated soon after retirement and Janet became active in Torrey Pines Ski Club. Besides leading activities for us, Janet has been a docent at the Museum of Contemporary Art, an usher at events all over San Diego, and president of the Pacific Beach Democratic Club. She volunteers at the Mingei International Museum and at the La Jolla Playhouse. She loves to listen to jazz and attend jazz festivals and she volunteers at the San Diego Dixieland Jazz Festival that is held every year in November. She continues to quench her thirst for travel and has visited over 55 countries on every continent but Antarctica.

Join Janet at the next Ethnic Dining event but please call first so she knows how many to expect.

Cabrillo Festival
SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 28, 2008
11:00 AM – 3:30 PM
NAVAL BASE POINT LOMA
BALLAST POINT
FREE ADMISSION-FREE
PARKING

At our last general meeting Ray Ashley brought us up to date on the explorer Juan Cabrillo. Dignitaries from Spain, Portugal and Mexico will be at the Cabrillo Festival and so should you.

The Cabrillo Festival will be held at Ballast Point, Naval Base Point Loma – at the south end of Rosecrans Street. (TG 1288 B7). It is a fun event for the entire family with educational activities, cultural demonstrations and exciting folkloric performances with music and dancing of Native Americans, Mexico, Portugal and Spain. The Festival will have food booths with delicious traditional food of the four nations. You will see Kumeyaay basket making and acorn preparation demonstrations, knot typing and a 16th century Spanish soldiers living history encampment. The highlight of the day is the re-enactment of Cabrillo's landing on the shores of the San Diego Bay (Ballast Point). Cabrillo, his soldiers and a priest sail into the bay on the San Salvador and once again claim the land for Spain. They will be accompanied by a second tall ship, The Lynx. The landing begins approximately 1:00 PM and is narrated by San Diego TV personality Jack White.
